Discover moravia city – Olomouc !

Olomouc is a vibrant and colourful university city on the old Morava river crossing, halfway between Prague and Krakow. Walkable historic centre of Olomouc is really large, and its cobblestoned back lanes, hidden courtyards and many-spired skyline are among the most attractive in Central Europe. Traditional Christmas markets on the main squares of Olomouc is open when December rolls around, the Christmas markets explode in a burst of colour, music and energy, and bring everybody out to forget about the grey skies and enjoy the festive season.

Food and drinks what you should try :

Punch, standard mulled wine, hotdogs (parek v rohlíku), langoš (a Hungarian deep fried batter with your choice of toppings, sweet or savoury), corn on the cob, or roasted chestnuts, traditional pastries like Štramberk Ears or Wallachian Frgal.
